Hon. Jeremy Fogel
United States District Court
Northern District of California
San Jose Division

Re: Gamaly v. Tumi, Inc.; Case No. C-07-04758 JF

Dear Judge Fogel:

I am writing in response to the Court's request in its Order of February 25, 2008 for letter briefs from the parties on the issue of Defendant Tumi, Inc.'s request for a stay of this action until (1) the Ninth Circuit files an opinion in Soualian v. International Coffee & Tea, LLC, and; (2) Congress acts on the Credit and Debit Card Receipt Act of 2007 (the "Act").

Plaintiff has reviewed the cases in the Northern District of California in which courts issued a stay pending the Ninth Circuit's decision in Soualian. Based on these decisions, and in the interest of judicial economy, Plaintiff does not oppose a stay in this action, until the Ninth Circuit files an opinion in Soualian.

Plaintiff is aware of no decisions in which any court in the Northern District granted a stay pending Congressional action on the Act. Unlike Soualian, in which briefing has been completed, the Act's prospects for enactment appear to be uncertain. Moreover, Soualian independently provides a sufficient basis for this Court to order a stay. In any event, once the Ninth Circuit decides Soualian, the Court and the parties can revisit the Act, and decide at that time whether the Act's status warrants a further stay.

For these reasons, Plaintiff does not oppose a stay until the Ninth Circuit files an opinion in Soualian.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Pierce Gore
